

September 3, 2009

Stakeholder Update

Earlier today Deputy Premier and Minister of Energy and Infrastructure, George Smitherman, announced the closure of four of OPG's coal-fuelled generating units. Two units at Nanticoke and two units at Lambton will be closed in late 2010. The link to Mr. Smitherman's announcement is:

<http://www.mei.gov.on.ca/english/news/>

The closure of these units was anticipated and we are proceeding with our biomass project work as planned.

Chris Young
Vice President, Fossil Projects
Ontario Power Generation